Area Description: Park City lies east of Salt Lake City in the western state of Utah. Framed by the craggy Wasatch Range, it's bordered by the Deer Valley Resort and the huge Park City Mountain Resort, both known for their ski slopes. Utah Olympic Park, to the north, hosted the 2002 Winter Olympics and is now predominantly a training facility. In town, Main Street is lined with buildings built during a 19th-century silver mining boom. Explore cultural sites in the cities of Salt Lake City and Denver, and visit the numerous National Parks and Forests within a short bus ride or flight.

1. Weather - It's simply amazing. Low humidity, tons of sunshine, no bugs.
2. Outdoor Activities - If you're bored in Park City, you're a boring person. There are six ski resorts within 45 minutes of PC. There are hundreds of miles of world class hiking/biking trails. You can drive 20 minutes in any direction and go fly fishing for rainbow trout.
3. People - Nobody is from here which means everyone made a concerted effort to live here. I've made a ton of really good friends in a short period of time.
4. National Parks - There are 11 national parks within a six hour drive of Salt Lake City: Yellowstone, Grand Canyon, Grand Teton, Arches, Canyon Lands, Capital Reef, Bryce Canon, Zion, & more. Salt Lake is perfect for exploring some of the world's most acclaimed, spectacular, and scenic outdoor places.
5. Schools - Park City has the top rated schools in all of Utah.
6. Parties - You give these people any reason to throw a party and they go crazy. This includes everything from 4th of July to fundraisers. The people here know how to have fun.
7. Traffic - There is none except for during the Sundance film festival and weekends when there is a snow storm. Folks here will get up early for good powder.
8. Airport - The SLC airport is 35 minutes from Park City and is one of the easiest airports in the U.S. to fly through. It is also a hub for both Delta and Southwest Airlines. There are many direct flights.
9. Concerts - Park City hosts free concerts pretty much every night of the week. The St. Regis Deer Valley happens to be the primary sponsor of a concert series that brings national acts into town.
10. Family Friendly - Utah maintains the youngest population in the United States. The median age in Utah is 29.6 compared to a nationwide median of 37.3. Businesses cater to families with kids.
11. Future - Salt Lake City is being called Silicon Slopes due to its growing technology industry. A lot of companies are moving here due to the reasons listed above. Utah has a bright future.
