Housing

Housing Type

Provided

Description

We provide housing, but individual housing rules, rents, and requirements can vary by property. Weekly rent may be deducted from paychecks, depending on the housing location. Housing can most accurately be compared to college/university dormitory: multiple bedrooms (with 2-4 people each) and shared common spaces, kitchens and bathrooms. The types of accommodations are typically apartments (flats) and rooming houses. Co-ed by apartment. Housing is within walking distance of work, grocery stores, laundry facilities, the beach, etc. Accommodations are furnished and usually provide bed linens and cooking supplies. Do not have high expectations of the housing; most of it is old, outdated, and poorly styled. However, it is conveniently located. You will find the housing style does not matter much as most students spend very little time there. You may find this information is not reflective of all housing situations. You will be expected to keep your place clean, get along with your roommates, treat your housing with respect and abide by the set rules! Participants will be able to review and sign a housing agreement.

Rent can range from $150-175 per week depending on the property. Deposit is usually $250, but may vary by property. Most landlords will require the deposit AND UP TO two weeks' rent to be paid in cash upon arrival. You will be expected to keep your space clean and free of trash, treat the housing and the furniture with respect, and abide by the rules that the housing owner sets. Once you select a place, you are making a commitment to stay there through your commitment date, otherwise you will lose your deposit.
