Cultural Opportunities

In the area

Starved Rock Lodge is located in LaSalle County, Illinois. Not only is LaSalle County home to the beautiful Starved Rock State Park, but it's filled with rich history, charm and adventure and there is something for everyone! The area offers two other state parks with hiking trails, kayaking, museums and even skydiving! We are also about 90 miles southwest of the amazing and fulfilled Chicago! Chicago, the "Windy City", lies along the shores of Lake Michigan. It is known for its vibrant arts, cultural attractions, excellent shopping and interesting architecture.

Provided by Host

Whether you're a history buff, outdoor enthusiast or just love relaxing in nature, Starved Rock Lodge offers a variety of activities for everyone. Activities depend on the season. During the summer months, we have free live music out on our Veranda every Friday night. We have river cruises and trolley tours that our employees can join with a discounted rate. Being in the middle of a beautiful state park with 13 miles of hiking trails is the best perk here!
