Uniform or Dress Code Requirements

Take care in your professional daily appearance: bathing, using deodorant (reapplied as necessary), clean hair and teeth are important. Wash your hands as needed, especially after visiting the restroom or smoking. If provided a uniform, be sure it is maintained in good, clean condition. If non-uniformed, attire should be professional in appearance. Neatly trimmed and maintained facial hair and sideburns are permitted in all work areas and positions within the property. If you wish to grow a mustache, goatee or beard, it must be fully grown during time-off periods; partially grown or "spotty" mustaches, goatees or beards are not permitted. Fingernails should be neatly trimmed and moderate in length. Extreme polish colors or designs are not permitted. Polish designs may not be offensive or contain nudity, profanity and facial connotations. Polish must be maintained with no chips or cracks. If you're wearing open-toe shoes, toenail polish should be well maintained. Any food handling positions may not wear fingernail polish. Visible tattoos are permitted, except on the face and neck. Clothing, make up or other coverings must be worn to cover visible tattoos on the face and/or neck. Visible tattoos may not be offensive or contain nudity, profanity and racial connotations. Hair must be neatly trimmed and maintained, not covering the eyes. Hair styles and colors that are distracting or extreme are not permitted. If worn, should be professional and tastefully applied; extreme shades or colors are not permitted. Jewelry should be professional, worn in moderation and not extreme in style. Jewelry worn to raise awareness of a specific cause is not permitted. Visible body piercings, facial ornamentation, including jewelry, ear clips/plugs are generally not permitted unless in accordance with the style or theme of a property's outlet (e.g. restaurant). One stud style nose piercing is acceptable on one side only. If worn, should be professional and tastefully applied; extreme shades or colors are not permitted.
